

“It Takes a Whole Team to Protect a Child”

13th Annual Child Abuse Prevention Conference
Children’s Advocacy Center of Laredo-Webb County

Monday, April 16, 2012

United ISD-Student Activity Center

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

- Elizabeth Smart, Keynote Address: “You’re Not Alone: The Journey from Abduction to Empowerment”
- Victor Vieth, National Child Protection Training Center: Keynote Address: “Unto the Third Generation: a bold initiative that outlines the necessary steps that we must take to eliminate child abuse in America in three generations.”
- Victor Vieth, NCPTC: “Conducting a Peer Review with an Eye toward Corroborating Evidence.”
- Stephen Daley, M.Ed. CEO: “radKIDS-a personal empowerment safety & life skills educational program that is a revolutionary and effective tool in the everyday battle against violence, and victimization in our children’s lives.”
- Cory Jewell Jensen, M.S., Co-Director, Center for Behavioral Intervention in Beaverton, Oregon: “Protecting your Children: Advice from Child Molesters” and “Sexual Victimization of Children: Understanding the Impact on Victims.”
- Julie Brand, M.S., CAPER Consulting: Child Abuse Prevention Education and Recovery. “Resiliency 101: From Victim to Survivor.”
- Dr. Matthew Cox, M.D., Co-Director of the REACH Program at Children’s Medical Center Dallas: “The 5 B’s of Child Physical and Sexual Abuse.”

Pre-Registration starts January 2012

Registration Fee: $75.00

Early Bird Special: Register three and one is FREE. Free CEU’S for early registrants. (Late registrants will pay $10.00 for CEU’S).

Contact information: frontdesk@caclaredo.org

956 712-1840